Re: TAP Electrical Contracting Service, Inc. v. E. E. Cruz & Co., Inc.
Civil Case No. 07 CV 7770 (GBD)

Dear Judge Daniels:

We are counsel for third-party defendant URS Corporation - New York ("URS") in the referenced action. We are writing to determine whether the Court desires to adjourn the scheduling conference currently calendared for tomorrow in light of a new second third-party action.

Pursuant to a stipulation with counsel for third-party plaintiff, yesterday URS answered the third-party complaint. In its answer, URS filed a second third-party action. The second third-party defendant was served at its offices yesterday.

We were previously advised that the Court had adjourned the scheduling conference in this action because the Court wished the third-party defendants to appear prior to the conference. In light of the second third-party action, we are hereby providing the Court with the option of adjourning the conference again to permit the second third-party defendant an opportunity to appear and retain counsel. If the Court wishes to adjourn the conference, please advise the undersigned at your earliest convenience and we will notify the other parties. Otherwise we will appear at tomorrow's conference.

Respectfully submitted,
